Troubleshooting

The file won't open in Books

- Confirm the filename ends in .epub.
- Open your Files app, locate the file, and tap it to choose Open in Books.
- Do not try to open it from a browser or email directly – use the Files app.

No sound is playing

- Make sure your device is not on silent / mute.
- Check your volume is turned up.
- Tap the page – narration requires a tap to begin on the first page.
- Close the book, reopen it, and tap the first page again.

The book looks wrong or pages are blank

- This usually means the file opened in the wrong app. Close it and reopen using Apple Books only.
- On Mac, make sure you are using Apple Books, not Preview.
